

Greeted entry

For conferences with up to 750 participants.

With greeted entry, attendees call in and an operator greets them and directs them to your conference. Operators can also perform enhanced services such as collecting participant information and screening participants. For example, if you do not want media members or a competitor's employees to join, you can ask the operators to screen participants before they are put into the conference.

Revision #5

Created 25 July 2022 17:07:24

Updated 12 August 2022 16:48:26